

Job advertisement for English teacher

Role	Teacher
Team	Operations
Reports to	Shelter team leader
Location	Athens, Greece
Employment type	20 hours
Length of employment	3 months

1. Main task of the job

- a. Supporting unaccompanied minors through teaching of English

2. Duties and responsibilities:

- a. Evaluating the English language level of the shelter minors upon entrance
- b. Teaching English introduction classes to shelter minors not enrolled in school
- c. Implementation of Faros pedagogical approach in the work together with team leader
- d. Facilitate homework support for shelter minors
- e. Follow up on the minors' school progress with teachers (if needed)

3. Qualifications

- a. Degree in education and teaching licence
- b. Very good knowledge of English (preferable also other languages Greek, Farsi, Arabic etc.)
- c. Experience working with youth

4. Personal qualities

- a. Courteous treatment of the shelter youth
- b. High degree of flexibility
- c. Ability to adapt to various educational needs and settings other than the regular classroom

- d. Commitment to the advancement of disadvantaged youth
- e. Forward-thinking and enthusiastic, able to motivate the youth

Closing date: October 23, 2022

If you are interested to apply for this role, please email your CV along with a cover letter to jobs@faros.org

In the subject header, please write FSHET-0610 English teacher for the shelter

PLEASE NOTE: Only short-listed candidates will be contacted.