

General worker

Role	General worker
Team	The shelter team
Location	Athens, Greece
Employment type	25 hours weekly, 5 hours daily – on rotation

About us:

Faros is a Christian non-profit organization established in 2014. We support vulnerable refugee children and youth, with a special focus on those who are unaccompanied. Our mission is to find and embrace unaccompanied refugee children and youth and provide them with immediate protection and help them to discover their worth and link them to the best possible further support. Faros has a street work program, that is connected to our drop-in center, where unaccompanied minors can find safety, have their basic needs covered and build friendships. In parallel with our street work, our drop-in center works as a youth center with the goal to empower and provide psychosocial support to refugee youth living in the center of Athens. In addition, the drop-in center has a football program and life skills classes. The dropin center has a strong link with Faros' other units – Our shelter for 24 unaccompanied minors aged 12-18 years and our Education and training center 'Horizon'.

We base our work on a holistic approach, where we want to meet and see the youth holistically with the goal to affirm the value, worth and dignity of each person and see the youth develop.

Main purpose of the job:

We are looking for a dynamic and empathic youth worker with experience with youth work, with special focus on unaccompanied refugee youth who wants to support the basic shelter staff.
